Discussion Questions:

1. How "inclined" is your heart toward God? When you think about God, do words like "desire, leaning into, passion, open, expectant" come to mind? Discuss.
2. Do you rely on God's strength in your everyday life? Share what that is like for you.
3. How quick are you to repent of sin when you become aware of it?
Discuss how repentance is an assumed part of believing.
4. David worshiped God with reckless abandon, because he realized how God had favored and blessed him. Are you open to growing in your expression of worship? What would that look like?
